

Sky's the Limit

An outdoors-inspired palette of heavenly blue, tangerine and fresh green creates a playful, informal mood. David Yanchuk of PartyArt Decor & Design laid a table of light blue shantung silk runners and modern square china with fresh viburnum, parrot and La Rem tulips. The tall, curly willow centerpiece flaunts cheeky white apple blossoms and hanging teardrop vases, each holding a single parrot tulip. A miniature wedding cake of blue fondant graces each place setting and is topped with a handmade, tangerine sugar peonie and green leaf name tag. Chiavari chairs are embellished with handmade tulle rosettes and draping silk ribbons.

See Shopping Guide page 106 for details.

His and her signature drinks—classics with a twist. Hers: The Garden Gimlet, a refreshing pick-me-up. Gin, cucumber and fresh basil are fused with cherry, honey syrup and squeezed lime. His: The Vita. For the modern gentleman. Equal parts Antica Formula vermouth, Aperol and Victoria Gin with a zest of orange. Created by Amy Elliott Cocktails.

realstyle

This hand-tied bridal bouquet incorporates orange, white, and green parrot tulips, Alstroemeria, viburnum and Queen Anne's lace. The boutonniere consists of a white and an orange tulip with a single head of viburnum, detailed with curly willow and loops of fine silver wire. Designed by PartyArt Design.

Mini cake by Eve Lacabanne of Culinary Cakes.

Surprise gifts await in these playful favour boxes. Try an assortment of coordinating colours and patterns for variety. Designed by Paper Poet.